

iBERNARDA!

Thank you for your enthusiasm in becoming a sponsor for our highly anticipated production of iBernarda! by Emilio Williams. We're thrilled to extend this exclusive invitation to join us on this remarkable journey.

Picture this: a groundbreaking reinterpretation of Federico Garcia Lorca's timeless masterpiece, The House of Bernarda Alba, meticulously crafted into the audacious new work, iBernarda! by Emilio Williams. Under the visionary direction of Co-Artistic Director Wendy Mateo and in collaboration with the esteemed Steppenwolf's 1700 Theater, this production is set to challenge the boundaries of innovation in theater.

iBernarda! emboldens the spirit of Lorca's classic, captivating a new generation while maintaining the essence that has made the original enduring. This is not just another show; it's a revelation of the potential that great theater has to be reimaged in a way that is both timeless and timely.

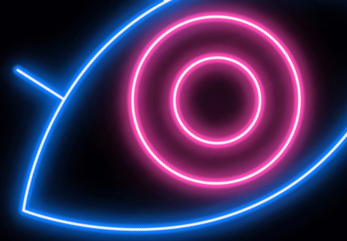

Imagine a stage with an ensemble of bold, talented, and diverse BIPOC women, both in the cast and on the creative team. Teatro Vista Productions aims at shattering conventions, bringing a fresh perspective to a traditional narrative, and setting the stage for a new era of artistic excellence.

By supporting our production of iBernarda!, you are investing in the creation of transformative, fearless, and groundbreaking theater. You're not just aligning yourself with the present; you're embracing the future of Latino representation in the media. Your sponsorship is an affirmation of your commitment to driving change, fostering innovation, and championing voices that deserve to be heard. Your support doesn't just make this production possible; it sets a precedent for what's achievable when creativity knows no bounds.

Step into the spotlight with us and let's create a legacy of visionary theater that resonates for generations to come.
